

“UNA GIORNATA PARTICOLARE” (A RELEVANT DAY)

- This sentence was the title of 1977 famous italian film with Loren and Mastroianni
- What happened 10 years later of relevant?
- The 21 october 1987 was a relevant day for the Macro experiment :
- The first Streamertube Plane was installed in hall B and put into operations
- The Collaboration celebrated the event drinking this bottle of champagne and signing the bottle.

Some signatures are easily recognizable

The conditions for installation were very hard:

- insufficient light for mounting streamer tubes;
- cold and humid (6 C, 100% humidity);
- water spread everywhere on the floor;
- need of heaters to protect the HV connections on streamer tubes;

Some months after the hall B conditions improved and the installation of Macro went ahead rather fast.

- In the summary reported in CNII meeting taken in Sept 1991 the implementation of the Macro detector, as in the proposal, proceeded in the following steps:
-
- 1) – SM1 operational since Feb 1989
- 2) – SM 2 operational since May 1990
- 3) – SM 3,4,5,6 operational since Jul 1991